

Policy Number:

2. The method of assessment shall be left up to the discretion of affected systems/institutions, but may include (although not limited to); written and oral English testing using standardized, recognized measurements graded by appropriate assessors; analysis of written examples with a related oral question/answer session with an appropriate audience of assessors; sample

